

What is My Gift to the World ?

Identifying and delivering our gifts in service to others

Neils Christiansen, PhD

A two-day workshop to learn about your personal gifts, how they make you a unique gift to the world, and how to use your gifts for effective service.

You will learn how to:

Discover some of your gifts.

Discover principles and their application that leads to meaningful service.

Combine power and love for effective service.

Design an effective service and record the steps for future use.

The process

The process is self-reflective, realistic, results oriented, interactive, and collaborative.

The benefits

A deeper clarity on your personal service to yourself, your community, and the world.

A deeper understanding of what it means to be of service.

A more productive and satisfying life.

Enhance your ability to serve yourself, your community, and the world more effectively!
